CAMP COUNSELOR JOB DESCRIPTION

NATURE OF THE POSITION: To build relationships with campers in a residential camp setting and enhance their experience as a camper while taking responsibility for their health and well-being and guiding them towards a relationship with Christ.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. High school graduate or equivalent, or at least 19 years of age;
2. Have a commitment to Christ, seeking to live out that commitment in their daily contact with others, demonstrating high moral and ethical behavior;
3. Demonstrate a love for children and a willingness to engage in a sacrificial investment of time and energy on their behalf;
4. Adaptability, integrity, enthusiasm, sense of humor, patience and self-control;
5. Be a team player and possess leadership qualities;
6. Participate in Staff Training Week provided by Camp Dixie;
7. Demonstrate an ability to work creatively with other staff; and
8. Be in communication with the Director of Ministry for the Eastern Region prior to camp.

RESPONSIBLE TO:

1. The camp director appointed for each week
2. The Director of Ministry for the Eastern Region.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Leadership and guidance of a cabin group of five to eight campers.
2. Participate in the general planning for the camp program in which you will be involved.
3. Have an understanding of the "Staff Training Manual" and see that all policies are upheld in the summer camp programs.
4. Have knowledge of safety and health regulations and understand your role in seeing that they are followed.
5. Supervise the activities of a Counselor-in-Training (CIT) if one is assigned to you.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Live with a group of five to eight campers (the number of campers in a group will be dependent on the age of the campers.). Build relationships with your campers, helping them adjust to camp life and in relationship to other campers, serving as a parent substitute for those in your care.
2. Accompany campers to all camp classes, gatherings and activities, seeing that they arrive on time, participating enthusiastically, supporting the programming and program staff, and assisting in leadership as requested.
3. Maintain good public relations with campers' parents, communicating with them on arrival and departure and throughout the week if necessary.
4. Give guidance to individual campers in regard to camp life and personal situations they may be facing.
5. Communicate with your caregiver and the camp director concerning the needs of your campers, making them aware of homesickness, disciplinary actions, and asking for assistance when necessary.

6. Guide campers in your cabin or your team, depending on the program for the week, in times of Bible study and prayer, using the materials provided for you and following the methods given to you.
7. Sit with your campers at mealtime and act as host or hostess at your dining table and setting an example in table manners.
8. Work as a team with fellow counselors, assisting them when needed for the well-being of the campers.
9. Direct the activities of the CIT under your supervision, serving as a mentor for them.
10. Recognize and take advantage of “teachable moments” as they arise during your time living in community with your campers. Be willing to share your own personal faith and encourage campers to do the same at their own level of understanding.
11. Participate in filling out evaluation forms given to you for campers, CIT’s and the program for the week of camp, taking care to submit these on time.
